

House Resolution No. 3051

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives take great pleasure in applauding the achievements and triumphs that have so proudly enriched the lives of remarkable young Missourians; and

Whereas, Katie Cook, a student at the Fulton Academy in Fulton, Missouri, has been chosen to receive a 2005 Lieutenant Governor's Service Award as part of the Missouri Learn and Serve America program; and

Whereas, Katie Cook has participated in a wide variety of Service-Learning programs throughout her high school career and is dedicated to seeking out ways to help her peers, young children, those with special needs, and adults alike; and

Whereas, known as courteous, respectful, and a role model for other students, Katie Cook is an outstanding student who has always given more than one hundred percent to every task she has encountered; and

Whereas, Katie Cook's projects have included initiating her school to have a blood drive for the American Red Cross and working diligently at her local soup kitchen; and

Whereas, Katie Cook has enjoyed making it a point to visit and become friends with individuals residing at Jefferson Lodge, a nursing home for mental hospital patients; and

Whereas, Katie Cook also deserves to be commended for raising approximately $450 in one week for the Tsunami Relief Fund and for working with preschool children within her community, where she designs lesson plans and real hands-on learning for the little ones; and

Whereas, very committed to her school, Katie Cook had the honor and privilege of speaking to the Missouri Board of Education about the effectiveness of an alternative school:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Katie Cook at this well-deserved moment of distinction and in wishing her only the best in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Katie Cook, as a measure of our esteem for her.
